TIMED RELEASE -- HOLD UNTIL MAY 4ROSEMARY MASTERSON JOHNSTON 1980 BISHOP BUDDY AWARD RECIPIENT

Each year since 1976, the University of San Diego Alumni Association has honored an outstanding alumnus who has made significant contributions to his or her occupational pursuits, to community endeavors, and to the University. Former winners include J. Fred Widmer, John J. Rodee, Trudy Fabian and Jose Flores.

Rosemary Johnston is the recipient of the 1980 Bishop Buddy award. She has continued her involvement with USD since her graduation in 1970 with a double major in history and English.

Rosemary has excelled in her endeavors as a homemaker and mother of three (married to Walter Johnston '68), as well as winning numerous professional awards as a columnist for the Sentinel newspapers. Included in her professional awards are a Certificate of Excellence, 1975, Suburban Newspapers of America, for Women's Interest writing and a first place from Sigma Delta Chi for Community Service.

She has generously contributed her time to a variety of civic and church organizations. She is a member of the Good Shepherd Parish Council.

Since 1972, she has held offices in the Alumni Association. Rosemary was Alumni President from May 1977 - May 1979. She is a member of the Alcala Society. Rosemary is a life member of the California Scholarship Federation. While a student at USD, she was in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

The announcement of the award was made at the Annual Alumni Meeting at Casa del Rey Moro in Balboa Park on May 3.
